Guidelines for Completion of Master’s Degree

Full-time students in the thesis pathway are expected to finish all requirements for the degree except HIST 5909 during their first two terms of study. The thesis requirement is designed to take an additional two or three terms.

Full-time students in the research essay pathway are expected to finish all requirements for the degree except HIST 5908 during their first two terms of study. The research essay requirement is designed to take an additional term.

Part-time students should complete all degree requirements except the thesis within twelve terms of study.

M.A. students are required to submit thesis or research essay proposals to the graduate advisor during their second term of full-time enrollment. Part-time students should discuss the timing of this requirement with the Department.

Language Requirements

All candidates are required to demonstrate a reading knowledge of a language other than English, the choice to depend upon the field of the candidate’s thesis or research. For seminars dealing with sources not in English, a reading knowledge of the appropriate language will be required before acceptance into the program. Details may be obtained from the supervisor of graduate studies.

Ph.D. History (10.0 credits)

Candidates will be responsible for three areas: a field (normally Canadian history; history of Women, Gender and Sexuality; European history; or the history of Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean) and 2.0 credits in breadth-requirement courses.

The breadth requirement is fulfilled by the successful completion of 2.0 credits in Ph.D.-level (6000-series) history courses different from the candidate’s field. Either the candidate’s field or one of the breadth-requirement credits must be on the history of a national or geographical area.
A written examination will be taken in each of the breadth-requirement courses before the end of the candidate’s second term in that course. Students will complete:

Requirements:

1. 1.0 credit in theory and method:

   HIST 6808 [1.0] Historical Theory and Method

2. 7.0 credits in the field:

   HIST 6906 [0.5] Ph.D. Tutorials (1.5 credits total, in the candidate’s field)

   HIST 6906 [0.5] Ph.D. Tutorials (1.5 credits total, in the candidate’s field)

   HIST 6906 [0.5] Ph.D. Tutorials (1.5 credits total, in the candidate’s field)

   HIST 6907 [0.5] Ph.D. Comprehensive (an oral comprehensive in the candidate’s field taken during the candidate’s fourth term)

   HIST 6909 [5.0] Ph.D. Thesis (in the candidate’s field. Candidates are required to submit a thesis proposal to the graduate supervisor within three months of completing their oral examination)

3. 2.0 credits in breadth requirement courses different from the candidate’s field, from:

   HIST 6100 [1.0] History of Modern Europe

   HIST 6101 [1.0] History of France

Selection of Courses - Political Economy

In addition to the graduate courses offered by, or associated with, the Institute of Political Economy, the courses listed below are relevant to students of political economy and would, with the prior approval of the Institute, be used to design a coherent and internally complementary set of courses to fulfill degree requirements. The list is not exclusive and is subject to change.

Master’s students may select 1.0 credit in political economy at the 4000-level.

Note: the number of spaces in graduate courses offered by other departments may be limited, and registration may be conditional upon obtaining the prior approval of the department concerned. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that permission is obtained from the appropriate
History department prior to registering in any of the following courses.

Guidelines for Completion of Doctoral Degree

It is expected that full-time students will complete the thesis requirement within six terms of registering in HIST 6909, and part-time students within twelve terms.

Language Requirements

A reading knowledge of French will be required. Proven competence in an additional language or languages will be required if it is pertinent to the candidate's program. The language examinations will be written early in the first post-M.A. year, and before the field examinations. The language requirement (examination or courses) must be completed within two terms of initial registration.

Residence Requirement

The normal residence requirement for the Ph.D. degree is a minimum of three years of full-time study after the B.A. (Honours) degree, or two years after the M.A. degree.

University of Ottawa

A Carleton University student may take one seminar in the Department of History at the University of Ottawa, with permission of the two departments.

Regulations

See the General Regulations section of this Calendar.

Admission

The minimum requirement for admission to the master's program is an Honours bachelor's degree (or the equivalent) with at least high honours standing.

The Department offers no qualifying-year program; applicants with a general (three-year) degree may be considered for admission into the fourth year of Carleton's B.A. (Honours) program.

Admission

Applicants with an M.A. degree will be expected to have at least high honours standing.

Applicants for the history of Women, Gender and Sexuality program will be expected to have at least one of their earlier degrees in history.
