

Migration and Diaspora Studies (MGDS)

---

Institute of Interdisciplinary Studies
Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences

MGDS 2000 [0.5 credit]

Migration and Diaspora Studies

Introduction to the social, cultural, economic and political implications of the movement of people with a multidisciplinary and multiscale approach to topics such as migration and immigration, diaspora identities, global culture, and transnationalism. Introduction to basic research and academic writing skills.

Prerequisite(s): second-year standing.

Seminar three hours a week.