

International Affairs (INAF)

International Affairs (INAF) Courses

INAF 3001 [0.5 credit]

Understanding Policy in a Global Context

Analysis of international policy processes relevant to governments, non-governmental organizations, international organizations and multinational corporations, drawing upon theories of international relations, political science, law and economics. Emphasis on analytical and normative aspects of public policy processes in international relations.

Prerequisite(s): third-year standing in the B.P.A.P.M. program and registration in the International Studies Specialization.

Lectures or seminars three hours per week.

INAF 3002 [0.5 credit]

Applied Policy in a Global Context

Applications of policy analysis to specific international problems with an emphasis on institutions, multiple levels of governance, the role of non-governmental actors, and complex interconnected policy issues. Cases are drawn from international problems such as security, economics, development, the environment, migration, and health.

Prerequisite(s): third-year standing in the B.P.A.P.M. program and registration in the International Studies Specialization, and successful completion of INAF 3001.

Lectures or seminars three hours per week.

INAF 4101 [0.5 credit]

Topics in Conflict and Conflict Management

An interdisciplinary course examining selected issues and policies in the area of conflict and conflict management.

Topics include subjects such as sources and causes of conflict, conflict mediation, and peacekeeping and peacebuilding.

Prerequisite(s): fourth-year standing in the B.P.A.P.M. program and registration in the International Relations and Conflict Concentration of the International Policy Studies Specialization, or permission from Kroeger College and NPSIA.

Lecture or seminar three hours per week.

INAF 4102 [0.5 credit]

Special Topics in Development and International Affairs

Analysis of selected issues in international aspects of development from an interdisciplinary perspective.

Prerequisite(s): ECON 3601 and ECON 3602, or ECON 3603 or ECON 3508, and fourth-year standing in the B.P.A.P.M. program and registration in either the International Studies Specialization or the Development Studies Specialization.

Lectures or seminars three hours a week.

INAF 4103 [0.5 credit]

Special Topics in International Political Economy and International Affairs

Analysis of issues in international political economy from an interdisciplinary perspective.

Prerequisite(s): fourth-year standing in the B.P.A.P.M. program and registration in the International Studies Specialization.

Lectures or seminars three hours a week.

INAF 4201 [0.5 credit]

Topics in Security and Intelligence

An interdisciplinary course examining selected issues and policies in the area of intelligence and security.

Topics include subjects such as intelligence oversight and privacy, comparative defence and security policy, terrorism, and counterterrorism.

Prerequisite(s): fourth-year standing in the B.P.A.P.M. program and registration in the Security and Intelligence Concentration of the International Policy Studies Specialization or permission from Kroeger College and NPSIA.

Lecture or seminar three hours per week.

INAF 4202 [0.5 credit]

Issues in Development Management

An examination of the application of organization theory to policy implementation and evaluation for developing and transitional systems, with an emphasis on the role of cultural differences and divergent value systems in development management.

Also listed as PSCI 4409.

Prerequisite(s): ECON 3603 and fourth-year standing in the B.P.A.P.M. program and registration in either the International Studies Specialization or the Development Studies Specialization.

Lectures or seminars three hours a week.

INAF 4301 [0.5 credit]

Topics in Rights and Human Development

An interdisciplinary course examining selected issues and policies in the area of rights and human development.

Topics include subjects such as food security, access to water, income distribution and inequality, health and education.

Prerequisite(s): fourth-year standing in the B.P.A.P.M. program and registration in the Rights and Human Development Concentration of the Development Policy Studies Specialization, or permission from Kroeger College and NPSIA.

Lecture or seminar three hours per week.

INAF 4401 [0.5 credit]Topics in Global Economic Relations

An interdisciplinary course examining selected issues and policies in the area of globalization and global economic relations. Topics include trade and development, multinationals and corporate social responsibility, debt and finance, intellectual property, and migration.

Prerequisite(s): fourth-year standing in the B.P.A.P.M. program and registration in the Global Economic Relations Concentration of the Development Policy Studies Specialization, or permission from Kroeger College and NPSIA.

Lecture or seminar three hours per week.

Summer session: some of the courses listed in this Calendar are offered during the summer. Hours and scheduling for summer session courses will differ significantly from those reported in the fall/winter Calendar. To determine the scheduling and hours for summer session classes, consult the class schedule at central.carleton.ca

Not all courses listed are offered in a given year. For an up-to-date statement of course offerings for the current session and to determine the term of offering, consult the class schedule at central.carleton.ca