

Medieval and Early Modern Studies (MEMS)

---

Medieval and Early Modern Studies (MEMS) Courses

MEMS 2001 [0.5 credit]

Discovering the Medieval and Early Modern Past

An introduction to the Late Antique, Medieval and Early Modern worlds. Organized thematically, students will be introduced to interdisciplinary exploration of core topics.

Prerequisite(s): second-year standing.

Lectures and discussion groups three hours a week.

MEMS 3001 [0.5 credit]

Researching the Medieval and Early Modern Past

Continued interdisciplinary study of the Late Antique, Medieval and Early Modern worlds, with a focus on how to develop a deeper analysis of the core topics examined in MEMS 2001.

Prerequisite(s): MEMS 2001, or permission of the Program Coordinator.

Lectures three hours a week.